Location and overview

Kołobrzeg is a port and spa town in the West Pomeranian voivodeship in northwestern Poland. It lies at the mouth of the river Parsęta on the Baltic. Kołobrzeg has around 47,000 residents and is known as a long-standing seaside resort and sea harbour.

Beach and spa

The town has extensive sandy beaches stretching along a spit between the sea and the river. Along the beach promenade are spa facilities, cafés and spa houses. Kołobrzeg's healing climate is reinforced by brine baths fed from natural saline springs. The sea dyke with its spa park invites long walks.

Sights

Kołobrzeg's landmarks include the historic 17th-century lighthouse and remnants of the medieval town fortifications. The old town has a beautiful co-cathedral and numerous villas from the imperial era. Excursion boats depart from the harbour. Kołobrzeg combines urban culture with Baltic flair and has a temperate maritime climate.

Note

- The first photo in our gallery has been lightly edited to illustrate how the property could look – for example with a different wall colour. The following images show the actual condition of the property.
- The price shown in euros corresponds to the price in złoty, but due to exchange rate fluctuations it is always an approximate value. Our listings always also state the price in złoty, as requested by the seller.

Notes on Polish real estate practices:

- Limited location information: in Poland it is common practice for property listings not to disclose the exact address of the property.
